If you enroll in the month of January, you automatically qualify for commissions in the months of January and February. However, to qualify for commissions in March you MUST place an AutoShip by the last day of February. For every month following, you must place an AutoShip in the month prior to receive commissions.

* It is important to note that qualification is based on the date of the commission payment, not the date of purchase.

Weekly enrollments are accumulated from Sunday through Saturday.

For example: May 6th through May 12th would be considered a one-week period. The commissions for the one-week period in this example would be paid on Friday, May 25th, which is two Fridays after the close of the May 6th business week.

The only reasons a Life and Health Coach would not receive an expected commission would be because of an unregistered card or they did not place a personal AutoShip in the month prior to pay day.

Summary: Paid two Fridays after the closing Saturday.

This includes Power Start, Matching bonuses and Upgrade Commissions

- Paid two weeks following the enrollment or upgrade. Always paid on Fridays.

Trévo uses a Sunday-Saturday pay period

For Example:

Mr. Singh enrolls Mr. Patel on any day between January 5th through January 11th, he will be paid on January 24th.

* It is important to note that qualification is based on the date of the commission payment, not the date of purchase.
